1. General

This Policy is a privacy statement and aims to inform you on: how we collect, use and disclose your personal data, the purpose for processing and your legal rights as data subjects pursuant to the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR) and the Protection of the Personal Data Processing Act 2018. In accordance with the mentioned Regulation 'personal data' means any information that can identify (directly or indirectly) a natural person e.g. full name and an address or an ID number.

2. Who are we

Wilson Cyprus Insurance Brokers Limited is a licensed insurance company registered in the Registers of Insurance Intermediaries of Cyprus under license number 6336. Its office is at Anniva Fransis, 19, RIA COURT 57, Office 401, 6031, Larnaca, Cyprus.

3. How we process your personal data

We collect and process different types of personal data which we obtain from you through the insurance forms in accordance with the explicitly and freely given consent that you have given us. We may also collect personal data from other publicly available sources (e.g. the Internet) which we lawfully obtain and are permitted to use.

4. What personal data we collect

If you are a client, a prospective client, an insured person or a beneficiary in an insurance policy, the personal data we collect may include: Full name, home address, contact details, date of birth, ID or passport number, profession, marital status, number of family members, personal income and expenses, assets, bank account number, height, weight and health conditions.

5. Why we process your personal data and on what legal basis

We are committed to protecting your privacy and handling your data in a transparent manner and as such we process your personal data in accordance with the GDPR and the data protection statute law for one or more of the following reasons:

A. Contract necessity We process personal data on behalf of insurance companies in order to enter into contract, to amend a policy, to handle a claim or any other contract performance.

B. Legal obligation There are some legal obligations arising from relevant laws and statutory requirements. In addition, there are various supervisory authorities like the Insurance Companies Control Service which may impose on us necessary personal data processing e.g. the insurance analysis.

C. Legitimate interest We process personal data to safeguard legitimate interests pursued by ourselves or by a third party. Legitimate interest occurs when we have a business or commercial justifiable reason to process your personal data, as long as this is necessary and is not unfair for you.

D. Consent Provided you have given us your written specific consent, then the lawfulness of such processing is based on that consent. You have the right to withdraw or restrict your consent at any moment. Concerning the separate consent, you may have given to the insurance company, you should contact the insurance company directly.

6. Who receives your personal data

As processor we share your personal data with the insurance companies we cooperate with, so that they can provide cover for you.

7. Commercial purposes

Provided you have given us your specific consent, we may process your personal data in order to inform you about products, services and offers that may be of interest for you.

8. How long we keep your personal data for

We shall keep your personal data for as long as you remain our client. When this relationship ends, we erase all relevant information within 12 months, unless there is a justifiable reason not to do so. In case you have filed a claim to your insurance company through us, we keep your personal data until the settlement of your claim. Personal data of prospective clients are kept for a period of 6 months.

9. Your data protection rights
